RANDALL ZELZNICK M-018869 SANDRA M. McCONNELL, et al., Complainants, vs. MEGAN J. BRENNAN, Postmaster General, United States Postal Service, Agency.	)))))))))))))	EEOC Hearing No. 520-2010-00280X OFO Appeal Nos. 0720160006 0720160007 OFO Request Nos. 0520180094 0520180095 Agency Case No. 4B-140-0062-06

NOTICE OF VACATED FINAL AGENCY DECISION

The EEO process does not require that you have an attorney, but if you are represented, provide this Notice to your attorney(s) or non-attorney representative(s).

In accordance with remedial compliance action item I contained in the November 7, 2018 decision of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission's Office of Federal Operations (EEOC) in Sandra M. McConnell et al. v. Megan J. Brennan, Postmaster General, EEOC Appeal No. 012082505, Agency Case No. 4B-140-0062-06, the final agency decision (FAD) issued in connection with your individual claim for relief in this case is now vacated. This means that the FAD has been rescinded and is now void. Any continuing compliance action in connection with relief ordered in the FAD will cease. No action is required from you at this time; however, you may receive further instructions from the EEOC Administrative Judge assigned to your claim. Further actions with respect to your claim for relief will depend upon the procedures developed by EEOC Administrative Judge Monique Roberts-Draper for the EEOC's New York District Office.
