Together, with all of you, the APWU has made major progress including the solid new 2021 Collective Bargaining Agreement, landmark Postal Service Reform Legislation, strong safety health COVID protections, promotion of vote by mail and expanded postal services and successful defense of our cherished public Postal Service. But our work is far from over.

With proven leadership of results, the APWU Solidarity Team is prepared to continue to meet the challenge of protecting a secure future for current, retired and the next generation of workers.

As the campaign unfolds, you will be hearing from us – through campaign materials, our team website, social media and in person whenever possible.

We welcome your thoughts and questions and respectfully seek your assistance and support.

Yours in Union Solidarity,

Mark Dimondstein for President, Debby Szeredy for Executive Vice-President, Elizabeth “Liz” Powell for Secretary-Treasurer
On behalf of the APWU Solidarity Team
