USPS Proposes Improvements to Provo Processing Facility

Facility to remain open and modernized as a Local Processing Center

Public meeting to be held Nov. 2

USPS investing heavily in Utah in effort to modernize nation's aging postal network and achieve goal of 95% on-time delivery nationwide

PROVO, UT — The United States Postal Service is conducting a Mail Processing Facility Review (MPFR) of processing operations at its Provo Processing and Distribution Center (P&DC). The review was initiated to evaluate moving some of the mail processing operations from the Provo P&DC to the Salt Lake City Auxiliary Service Facility (ASF).

The Postal Service is investing heavily in its Utah operations as it moves to modernize the nation's aging and outmoded postal network and achieve the organization's goal of 95% on-time delivery nationwide. The initial results of the facility review support the business case for keeping the Provo facility open and modernizing the facility as a Local Processing Center (LPC). The Provo LPC will be a critical node in connecting mail to the new postal network. Additionally, the business case supports transferring some mail processing operations to the Salt Lake City ASF.

A public meeting will be held Thursday, Nov. 2, 1:00 PM at the Provo City Library at Academy Square, 550 N University Ave, Ballroom & Brimhall Rm 302, Provo UT 84606 to share the initial results of the study and to allow members of the community to provide additional oral feedback. A summary of the MPFR will be posted on about.usps.com at least one week prior to the public input meeting. Members of the local community may submit written comments at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/mpfr-provo-ut> through Nov. 17. The public's input will be considered prior to a final decision.

The Postal Service will continue to work closely with its unions and management associations throughout the facility review process. This MPFR, currently in review at USPS Headquarters and its Regional Office, is subject to change. The Postal Service will continually monitor the impact of any changes that are implemented and will adjust plans as necessary and appropriate.

###

Please Note: The United States Postal Service is an independent federal establishment, mandated to be self-financing and to serve every American community through the affordable, reliable and secure delivery of mail and packages to nearly 165 million addresses six and often seven days a week. Overseen by a bipartisan Board of Governors, the Postal Service is implementing a 10-year transformation plan, Delivering for America, to modernize the postal network, restore long-term financial sustainability, dramatically improve service across all mail and shipping categories, and maintain the organization as one of America's most valued and trusted brands.

The Postal Service generally receives no tax dollars for operating expenses and relies on the sale of postage, products and services to fund its operations.
