Subject: This afternoon's Announcement on PO-408 MPFR Studies- Postal Service Decision

Mark & Charlie,

We have been informed of the Postal Service will be announcing the first round of decisions regarding the 408 studies.

There will be no bargaining unit layoffs and no facility closures.

This is in further reference to the Postal Service's September 27 correspondence regarding its intent to conduct a Mail Processing Facility Reviews (MPFR) at five locations and to determine whether efficiency and/or service could be improved by consolidating mail processing operations into Regional Processing and Distribution Centers (RPDC) :

- Greenville, SC Processing and Distribution Center (P&DC) into Charlotte, North Carolina (NC) Local Processing Center (LPC) and Charlotte, NC Regional Processing and Distribution Center (RPDC)
- Minneapolis, MN P&DC into St. Paul, MN P&DC
- Provo, UT P&DC into Salt Lake City, UT Auxiliary Service Facility (ASF)
- South Suburban (Chicago), IL P&DC into Chicago South RPDC
- Trenton, NJ P&DC into Philadelphia, Pennsylvania P&DC

Decisions will be announced today for each of the 5 locations and each decision will announce staffing impacts. We will be emphasizing that there will be no career employee layoffs.

All facilities will remain open as a Local Processing Center (LPC)

Bargaining unit reassignments and any reduction in the number of non-career employees will be made in accordance with Article 12.

Additional information is below for each of the 5 locations:

Greenville, SC

- Destinating operations will continue to be processed at the Greenville P&DC
- No changes are expected to Retail or Delivery Operations
- Originating operations will be processed at the Charlotte RPDC

The Postal Service anticipates there will be some impacts to staffing with Originating operations moving to the Charlotte RPDC. We anticipate this to impact the following career positions at the Greenville P&DC:
