U.S. Postal Service Board of Governors to Hold Open Meeting on Aug. 8

WASHINGTON — The U.S. Postal Service Board of Governors will convene an open meeting on Aug. 8, 2024, at the Postal Service headquarters located at 475 L'Enfant Plaza SW in Washington. Members of the public are invited to attend the meeting, which will commence at 4:30 p.m. EDT in the Boardroom.

During the meeting, the board will address the following agenda items:

1. Call to order and opening remarks of the Chairman
2. Remarks from the Postmaster General and CEO
3. Approval of the minutes from the May 9 closed and open meetings
4. Committee reports
5. Quarterly Financial Report presented by Mr. Corbett
6. Quarterly Service Performance Report presented by Dr. Colin
7. Approval of the tentative agenda for the November 14 open meeting
8. Adjournment

Open session meetings of the Board of Governors are available on live audio webcasts at <https://about.usps.com/who/leadership/board-governors/#sessions>. Three hours after the conclusion of the open session meeting, a recorded audio file will be available for listening. In compliance with Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act, the audio webcast will be open-captioned.

Please Note: The United States Postal Service is an independent federal establishment, mandated to be self-financing and to serve every American community through the affordable, reliable and secure delivery of mail and packages to 167 million addresses six and often seven days a week. Overseen by a bipartisan Board of Governors, the Postal Service is implementing a 10-year transformation plan, Delivering for America, to modernize the postal network, restore long-term financial sustainability, dramatically improve service across all mail and shipping categories, and maintain the organization as one of America's most valued and trusted brands.

The Postal Service generally receives no tax dollars for operating expenses and relies on the sale of postage, products and services to fund its operations.
